

ExportGA

SPRING 2016 INTERNSHIPS

With the University of Georgia
Small Business Development Center

Application Deadline JANUARY 8, 2016

We invite you to participate in an exciting program called ExportGA. You will provide market research and analysis to select companies to help them develop and implement an international business strategy. The objective of the program is to produce export sales for participating companies.

Who are we looking for?

- Business students who are achievement-oriented, self-starters, creative, professional and personable.

What will you do?

You will provide market intelligence for companies that are participating in ExportGA. Along with them, you will attend three export training workshops. Other than the three dates and times listed, you are not required to leave campus in order to participate in this program. Program does include two on-campus evening training sessions prior to the first workshop

Why would you want to do this?

- 3 credit hours (INTB 4800)
- Acquire training in export regulations
- Get real-world, hands-on experience working directly with a company to help them penetrate foreign markets. Great for your resume!
